SENATOR SKARDA: Mr. President, a point of personal privilege.

PRESIDENT: Yes sir.

SENATOR SKARDA: Somehow, somebody stuck a sack of empty beer cans in front of my door this morning. I think that they did it to several other legislators. If the cans were full I wouldn't complain, but they are empty. I think that it is rather improper that people go to that extent to degrade anybody that might be against their can bill and I'm speaking specifically of the Oregon Bill, and if there is any questions as to where I am at, I am still against it.
